Georgia Neonatal Nurse of the Year: James Carey RN

We are very proud to announce that GACAANN Member James Carey RN from Macon Georgia was awarded the Georgia Neonatal Nurse of the Year award from the March of Dimes.

Letter from the GACAANN President

Happy New Year! It is an honor to be part of such a talented, diverse group of nurses who value the opportunity to make meaningful contributions to the world around them. I look forward to working with our outstanding chapter who are dedicated to the field of neonatal nursing as we expound upon another year of continued education, networking and community support. It is with great honor and dedication to you, that I work to help lead our group this year.

Sincerely,
Barbara Smith Weaver
